LAID TO REST. BURIAL OF EX-MAYOR WILLIAM C.

CARRINGTON. corted to Hollywood-Delegations of Impressive Services. The burial of ex-Mayor William C. Carrington took place in Hollywood yeserday. A large crowd of the citizens, in cluding the city officials and several fraternal orders, left their places of business to pay the last tribute of respect to the mem. ory of one who by his upright walk while living had won their true confidence and had proven himself worthy of it. The remains had proven himself werthy of it. The remains reached the city from Williamsburg in the morning at 11 o'clock by the Chesapeake and Ohio railway. At the depot representatives from the City Council, R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans; Hines Lodge, Knights of Pythias; Lee Lodge, No. 43. A. F. and A. M., all of the city officials, and a large number of private citizens met the remains and assisted in formally receiving them. According to the laws of the order of Knights of Honor the body of a dead member must be formally identified by a committee designated for that purpose. Consequently when the box containing the body was taken from the baggage car it was opened and the casket taken out. The undertaker then lifted the covering from the glass at the head of the casket so the committee could identify the body. This was accomplished in a very solemn and impressive manner, after which the pall-bearers placed the casket in the hearse, which was waiting on Broad street. THE PROCESSION TO THE GRAVE.

Then the procession was formed in the following order: R. E. Lee Camp first, honorary pall-bearers, active pall-bearers, city officials, Knights of Honor, Knights of Pythias, Masonic committee, the remains, family of the deceased. A large number of friends and other citizens closed the procession, which was one of the longest over seen friends and other criticens closed the procession, which was one of the longest ever seen in Richmond. When the last vehicle left the depot the first one had arrived near the corner of Eighth and Broad streets. The route of the procession was up Broad street to Laurel and down to Hollywood. FUNERAL SERVICES.

At Hollywood the funeral services were held. Rev. Dr. S. S. Lambeth, of the Broad-street Methodist church, conducted the ser-vice, and Rev. L. A. Cutler, of the Marshall street Christian church, offered the closing

RICHMOND COLLEGE.

Prospects for the Ensuing Term-Changes of the Past.

ond College opened on last Thursday. The great loss of the past year was in the death of Professor Smith, of the Mathe matics School. In his place, Professo Gaines, late of John-Hopkins University, has been secured for the current session.

Each school is now managed by its own full professor, and to the eight regular schools so long existing there have been added the School of Law and the School of Expression of Elecution—making ten separ-

The school of elocution will convene October 1st. On that day Mr. Hambeelin will meet the "entire college," and indicate his plans. He is master of his subject and will do a long-needed work in a hendsome manner. The literary department is in excellent trim and growing in efficiency and college influence. The scholarships are all full, and there is demand for more aid funds for poor boy. and funds for poor boy.

He will also deliver lectures on the French and German literature that will be open to the public.

THE STATE COMMITTEE.

Everything in Working Order at Demo cratic Headquarters.

State Democratic headquarters. Yesterday public documents were being put in en velopes and sent over the State, and much yelopes and sent over the State, and much good will result from this work. The documents are copies of the Force bill, speeches by prominent members of Congress on that measure, speeches on the tariff, debates on the McKinley bill, and Cameron's letter. This letter will be sent to the Fourth and Second districts mostly but some copies will be sent throughout the State.

Chairman Ellyson was in Lynchburg yesterday conferring with county chairmen.

Chairman Ellyson was in Lynchburg yesterday conferring with county chairmen, and doing all in his power that will bury forever this fall the Republican party in Virginia. Mr. Ellyson is an indefatigable worker, and has an earnest co-latorer in the person of Mr. Meade Haskins. Both are working hard in this district, and from all indications Wise will roll up the largest majority that has ever been cast at a Congressional election. Throughout the district Democrats are on the alert, and as Mr. Wise expressed it a few days ago, "They have never been so determined as they are this fall."

have never been so determined as they are this fall."

Among all local politicians Hon. Charles T. O'Ferrall's fight for Venable has been highly complimented. By his excellent generalship he has made many new friends, and brought himself into prominence before people that will always look upon him as one of Virginia's ablest representatives.

At the City Democratic rooms things were going on in the earnest and quiet way conspicuous at the State rooms. Transfers were being made out, documents were being distributed, and all was being done that would add to the success of the party. It was stated Cameron's letter had had its effect, and that many who voted the Republican ticket before would cast their ballot for Wise this fall.

It was rumored yesterday that Mayor Ellyson will veto the ordinance making four instead of five precincts in Clay Ward. The City Committee have urged the necessity of five precincts, inasmuch as the books have all been copied, and that to change the law and only have four precincts will throw the whole ward into confusion.

A great many of the Clay Ward people only want four precincts. They quote as the first reason that the City Committee last year should have not changed the law without consulting them; their next reason is that they are used to voting in the four precincts, and if another is "added, confusion will result."

will result.

Whether the Mayor will or will not veto the ordinance remains to be seen. If he does there will be five precincts in, the ward at the next election, as the Council would be powerless to act—the law requiring that precincts shall be settled upon at least thirty days before an election. The matter should be amicably settled, and Clay Ward, whether she has five or four precincts, should roll up her large Democratic majority this fall for George D. Wise.

oose distant patrons as though they came in person. Thoroughly reliable beople are employed to furnish samples and prices to our applicants. You can write to us for anything you want and experienced hands will fill your orders with the utmost care same day as received. It is of importance that you write promptly for advertised goods, as they are apt to be speedily picked up.

Only those who have tried it can realize the pleasure and convenience there is in shopping under our Transfer Sys tem. A convenient little card shows you at once the amount of your purchases and saves you the trouble of being toted from one department to another by clerks or floor-walkers. It is essentially the system of shopping or one's own book, and our patrons would not do without it for anything.
